

ARCHITECT

March 11, 2014

NEWSWIRE

Posted on: March 11, 2014 | From: ARCHITECT 2014

Morning News Roundup: March 11, 2014

Architecture news and views from around the nation and beyond.

"

Other business news: Kimberly Bowes was named director of the American Academy in Rome. Tadao Ando, Hon. FAIA, is slated to design his first New York building for developer Sumaida + Khurana. SmithGroupJJR is the architect of record for MGM National Harbor. The ribbon-cutting for Skidmore, Owings & Merrill's U.S. Consulate General in Guangzhou, China (winner of a 2013 Annual Design Award), was held last week. Chicago's John Ronan Architects and Boston's Shepley Bulfinch will design the Ed Kaplan Family Institute for Innovation and Tech Entrepreneurship at the Illinois Institute of Technology. Steven Holl's, FAIA, new building for Scotland's Glasgow School of Art is finished.